

Creative Cuffs and Bracelets with Betty Helen Longhi

Sponsored by the Wisconsin Designer Crafts Council
Saturday & Sunday, October 3-4, 2009 9:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.
Mount Mary College

2900 Menomonee River Parkway, Milwaukee, WI

Join us for this exciting weekend with nationally recognized metalsmith Betty Helen Longhi. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from this talented artist who is back in Milwaukee with WDCC by popular demand. In this workshop we will use the techniques of shell forming and roll printing to make a series of bracelets and cuffs from sheet metal. Students will experiment with ways to add texture and change the form of a metal pattern with the rolling mill. They will then transform these patterns into bracelets and cuffs by synclastic, anticlastic, and other shell forming techniques. Using the vehicle of the bracelet and cuff students will gain a new insight into ways to manipulate sheet metal as well as creating a unique group of jewelry items.
